5 New Volunteers Sworn In

Thursday Aug 24th was an exciting day at Heartland CASA 5 new CASA Volunteers were sworn in with the help of Judge Alfred Corey III. Please help us welcome Amy Jones from Aurora (Hamilton County), Julie Bruning from Chapman (Merrick County), Jordanne Speer from Central City (Merrick County), Gladys Ediger from Aurora (Hamilton County) and Tracy Bleier from Doniphan (Hall County) to the Heartland CASA team we are so excited to have you all as a part of our organization! Thank you for your service and welcome aboard!

Board Member Spotlight

Jill Purvis is one of our newest Board members, having served as a volunteer prior to joining the Board. She and her husband, Aaron, live in Central City and have 3 children; Landen, 8; Dawson, 4; and Hazel, 2.

She graduated from University of Nebraska, Lincoln, and has worked as an Underwriter for Principal Financial Group for almost 10 years.

Jill's vision for CASA is for more community recognition in all the counties we serve. Also for the communities to have a basic understanding of what the CASA program is. Through Jill's dedication she proves she has a deep passion for our organization! We are grateful to have Jill on our Board!!
